Journal Submission

The International Journal of Computers and Their Applications is published four times a year with the purpose of providing a forum for state-of-the-art developments and research in the theory and design of computers, as well as current innovative activities in the applications of computers. In contrast to other journals, this journal focuses on emerging computer technologies with emphasis on the applicability to real world problems. Current areas of particular interest include, but are not limited to: architecture, networks, intelligent systems, parallel and distributed computing, software and information engineering, and computer applications (e.g., engineering, medicine, business, education, etc.).   All papers are subject to peer review before selection.

A.   Procedure for Submission of a Technical Paper for Consideration

1. Email your manuscript to the Editor-in-Chief, Professor Ajay Bandi at: ajay@nwmissouri.edu

2. Illustrations should be high quality (originals unnecessary).

3. Enclose a separate page (or include in the email message) the preferred author and address for correspondence. Also, please include email and telephone information should further contact be needed.

4. Note: Papers shorter than 10 pages will be returned.

B.   Manuscript Style:
